Course Objectives

To understand the structure, purpose and key leaders of the Department of Health and Social Services. To describe current challenges for DHSS and DSAAPD and specific initiatives to address them in a collaborative way.

To focus on communication between caregiver(s), clinician(s), home care, day care and the person with dementia that can optimize the person with dementia's function and quality of life.

To define the PROMISE program, the services offered, and the population served.

To describe resources and tools available to support young adults transitioning from pediatrics to adult-centered care.

To develop one objective to implement in your area of practice that will improve collaboration to meet patient centered goals.

To have a greater awareness of the most pressing health issues impacting our state inclusive of the addiction epidemic largely driven by opioid usage.
